“The Doxology”

REFLECTION & PRAYER

This morning, our worship gathering will include a time of reflection and prayer built around a reading of Psalm 107. This is not something we have done recently, but prayer is a vital part of our worship. Our fast-paced world rarely offers us a chance to pause and quiet our minds. It is something we all need.

During this time, there will be four prompts for praise drawn from Psalm 107. When we come to these prompts, we invite you to speak aloud with one or two sentences expressing gratitude or praise in line with the passage. This can either be a statement, or if you wish, you can give a short prayer.

Out of respect, we ask that during this time of reflection and prayer, you refrain from moving around or going to the bathroom. Use this time to focus on your relationship with God.
