MESSAGE FROM THE SCRIPTURES

MARTIN LUTHER ONCE SAID,

“I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer.”

While this seems a bit odd (and had something to do with his theology of prayer), Luther’s point was that prayer is the foundation of effectiveness in Christian life. How can we claim to follow God if we do not (1) study His Word and (2) seek His Spirit’s will in how we live His Word out in the day.

PRAYER DECLARES, “GOD IS ACTIVE IN MY LIFE.”
